

Touchstone

The Next Level of Convenience

Touchstone was incorporated to provide its clients the Convenience to grow their business, the Convenience to fulfill their needs and the Convenience of a single vendor contact.

Touchstone is a confluence of excellence from various spheres of services spanning the corporate world such as Event Management, Printing, Corporate Gifting, Travel & Holiday Packages, Marketing, Advertising, Public Relations and many more. Our endeavour is to assist and partner with you in these non-core aspects of your business so that you can effortlessly focus on your core competencies.

What is the Next Level of Convenience?

Touchstone believes in offering a very simple idea to all our clients: "Do what you do best and leave us the rest"

Total Convenience: Range of services for a company's non-core business needs available under one roof. This saves the time and effort required in approaching multiple agencies.

Expertise: Access to expert knowledge and valuable experience in each of the field of services that we offer.

Economical: We believe we stand to offer maximum value for money to our clients. An array of services – all offered at one point which makes it easy for us to provide solutions to our clients at an economical price

Flexibility: Our portfolio of services contains standard offerings or it could be customized as well to suit the client's requirements

Efficient: We value our client's time and money. We are always committed to provide timely and efficient execution of services.
